EDITORIAL

The sermon was in French but we were in England. The monk was a Roman Catholic and this was an English cathedral. The service was traditional but there was a radical edge in the air. The weather was cold.....and rainy. (I was trying to think of the balancing contrast but it was a dull day!)

However, it was a very unusual day, actually quite unique. For recently in Rochester Cathedral we celebrated Bishop Gundulph's day. Of course, the French monk was the present Abbot of Bec where Gundulph had been originally professed as a Benedictine, back in the 11th Century. We were joined by the nuns of St Mary's Abbey, West Malling, a religious community which Gundulph founded and where there still remains the West end of the original abbey which Gundulph built and which bears remarkable similarity to the West end of Rochester Cathedral which he also built. Add to this list of buildings part of the castle at Rochester and the White Tower of London and (we think) the tower at Holy Trinity, Dartford, and it's quite an achievement for a monk bishop!

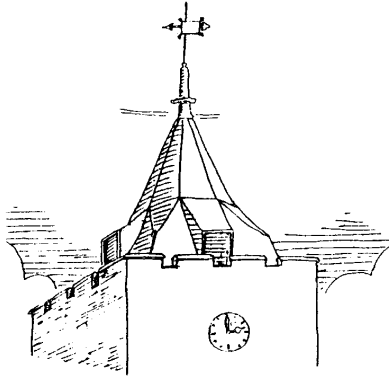

Gundulph was an extraordinary person of great faith and obvious practical ability in organising and planning. But he not only constructed buildings, he founded communities. I have already mentioned the one at West Malling. This was to balance the one he had begun to build up in Rochester monastery itself. When he arrived at the latter end of the 11th Century there were only six monks there. When he died in 1108 (that was the reason for us coming together on his 900th anniversary, 8th March to be precise) there were about sixty. Gundulph was not only good with stone he was good with the living stones – people. He was by all accounts frugal in what he ate, often giving his food to the poor. He was continually moved to tears when he celebrated mass. (Strangely he was also granted the whaling rites of the River Medway. You could say he was a weeper and a wailer!).

More seriously, this great man left his mark in his buildings in a way that few have been able to do since. Nearly a thousand years later his buildings, at least the cathedral, the abbey and the parish church of Dartford are still used for what they were originally built – the worship of God and the care and compassion for people. There are not many buildings of that age that haven't changed their usage down the ages. Of course, the castle is now more of a playground for children and an adventure for those who like to visit historic sites; no longer a fortress but rather a fun place.

As the Thames Gateway begins to make its impact on North West Kent, I wonder how many of those houses and buildings will last even a hundred years. What sort of communities will move into the Ebbsfleet Valley next door to Bluewater? And how does the church express its gospel message and ministry in a brand new community of nearly twenty thousand people? Maybe to take Gundulph as an example and ensure a living presence in the place which enables people to worship God and to express care for neighbour, to proclaim good news to the poor..... It might be as simple as that.

A sermon in French might not be required, though!! Well, not yet - but who knows who might move in!

FROM ST BARTHOLOMEW'S CHURCH

FROM THE CHURCHWARDENS

Richard Worssam's institution by the Bishop of Rochester and induction by the Archdeacon of Tonbridge will take place on Monday 28th April at 7.30 p.m. Attendance will be by ticket only and members of the congregation wishing to attend should apply to the Churchwardens or the Church Office. Numbers will be limited as there are a number of Diocesan, Deanery and Civic guests to be invited as well as Richard's family, friends and supporters from his present parish. Please continue to pray for Richard, Donna, Christopher and Matthew as they prepare to move to Otford.

URGENT! St Bartholomew's Church Fair

White elephants need new home! Stall in danger of disappearing!

The Church Fair Committee is keen to hear from anyone who might be able to provide space in a garage or garden shed to store the White Elephants prior to the church fair on Saturday 21st June 2008. If you think you can be of any help whatsoever, please contact Margie Torry on 01959 524463. It will be great pity we are unable to run this stall again this year but we do need help in order to be able to do so.

Come and Meet Martyn Berry at an Open Meeting of St. Bartholomew's Cameo Group on Monday 14th April at 7.45 p.m. in the Church Centre. Martyn Berry is a Reader at Riverhead Church, a scientist and a man of wide interests. His subject at our meeting, to which everyone is welcome, is 'Energy Conversion.' He will demonstrate how to use the sun's energy as a renewable energy source, moving towards a hydrogen economy and away from the use of fossil fuels. His demonstration will feature a bucket, water and a model car. It promises to be fascinating. Don't miss it!

Annual Parochial Church Meeting is to be held on Tuesday 15th April at 8pm in the Church Hall. We do hope all parishioners will join us as we look back with thanksgiving and forwards with hope.

CU@5 Service. This popular informal service, held weekly in the Church Hall at 5pm, is taking a break for April (except 27th April) and will recommence for the early summer period from Sunday 11th May. Do come along if you haven't been before – and if you have, do bring your friends!

Date for your Diary – Village Celebration Service

The Otford Celebration Service, formerly known as the Civic Service, takes place on Trinity Sunday, 18th May at 9.30am.

Grateful thanks from St. Bart's go to Joy Pennyfather, who, for over thirty years, has typed up the copy of the church magazine for dispatch to the printer and has dealt with our editors with great patience and courtesy. The March edition marked her retirement so we send our thanks and all good wishes for the future.

This edition of the magazine is the first to be assembled by a combination of the Editor and the Church Office so we thank Clive Southgate and Susan Reid for all that they are about to do! We should be grateful if as much material as possible could be sent by e-mail and typed in Times New Roman 9 pt.

OTFORD HERITAGE CENTRE VISITORS

A report in this magazine early in 2006 gave the number of Heritage Centre visitors in 2005 (or more precisely from December 2004 to November 2005 inclusive) as 938, and it is interesting to compare this number, and the sort of places from which visitors came, with the figures for 2006 and 2007. The number of visitors is that recorded by Stewards on duty during the opening times of 2.30 to 4.30 pm on Saturdays, Sundays and Bank Holiday Mondays, together with the numbers for some visits by school parties or by individuals, which may take place during Monday to Friday mornings, when the Parish Office is open.

Thus, in 2006 the total number recorded was 1027, an increase on 2005. In 2007 it declined to 728, though the visitors' comments show the Centre to have been no less appreciated. The visits were spread out over the months as follows, with the numbers for 2007 being given first, followed by those for 2006 in brackets: January 63 (58), February 76 (42), March 53 (51), April 79 (176), May 67 (181), June 47 (35), July 65 (76), August 58 (95), September 94 (96), October 45 (89), November 63 (110), December 18 (18).

There is no compulsion on visitors to sign the Visitors' Book, but in 2006 48% and in 2007 46% of them did so, and to them we are grateful. Their addresses alone show from what far-flung places some of our visitors come. They also suggest that some of the higher figures for 2006 may be due to the numbers of people in group visits that year being fully recorded, whereas not all of those in similar visits in 2007 were. Thus, in May 2006 there were 20 visitors from the Orpington Astronomical Society, on Monday 12th June four adults and 35 children from Walthamstow Hall School, Sevenoaks, and on a Wednesday in November three teachers and 28 children from the Gordon Brock School, Brockley, 'on a comparison visit: Town and Country'. Group visits in 2007 included, on Monday February 12th, the Monday Walkers from Croydon; on 1st May the 2nd Otford Brownies; on Monday 11th June Walthamstow Hall Junior Year 3; and on Thursday June 28th the Ravens Wood School Geography Department. A notable visitor in July 2006 was the Duke of Kent, who signed his name with a flourish, taking up a whole page of the Visitors' Book to do so.

In the previous report, for 2005, visitors were classed in four categories according to where they came from, Percentages for 2007, followed by 2006 in brackets, were: Otford or Sevenoaks 18 (19); other Kent 45 (46); London or other UK 34 (28); Overseas 3 (6). This shows a curious similarity for each year although there were proportionately rather fewer visitors from Otford and Sevenoaks in the last two years than there had been in 2005.

Overseas visitors have come from a wide variety of countries, perhaps mostly from the USA, Canada and Australia. There have been four people from France, two from Switzerland, and one each from Hong Kong, Mexico, Singapore, and Slovenia.

Visitors' comments have been uniformly complimentary. A number of people very much admired the Palace model. A couple from Botley, Hants, in June 2006 commented 'An amazing collection. Puts many town museums in the shade'. Some have come in search of family history: a visitor from Solihull in June 2006 commented that his great-grandfather had been the manager of an Otford brickworks. In many ways, therefore, the Heritage Centre continues to fulfil a useful function. Bernard Worssam.

John Frith spends Christmas with Archbishop Thomas Cranmer

In the summer of 1532, John Frith returned to England from the comparative safety of the Continent. Why he did this is a mystery, because he was at the top of Sir Thomas More's list of "heretics" that he wanted burnt at the stake. It was not long before Frith was captured and imprisoned in the Tower. It was at this time that Thomas Cranmer became Archbishop, and so Frith came under his jurisdiction. Cranmer would be aware of Frith's academic brilliance (they were together at Cambridge); he would also be aware of his commitment to the new reformation doctrines. Cranmer at this time was not fully convinced of the validity of those doctrines. So over the Christmas period in 1532, he arranged that Frith should be released from the Tower and be his guest at the Bishop's Palace in Croydon. In his diaries, Cranmer records that they spent "many hours discussing together", and that "he could not get Frith to moderate his extreme views". Frith would not change; but Cranmer did! Thirty years later Cranmer was burnt at the stake for upholding those same views for which Frith was soon to be martyred. Cranmer also seems to have devised a clever plot whereby Frith could have escaped while being taken back to the Tower from Croydon, but Frith did not take advantage of this plot. (Details of this plot can be found on pp 138-139 of my book John Frith Scholar and Martyr)

For further information about our Institute, please call Joyce Allen on 01959 522915.

OTFORD EVENING W.I. Our speaker in March was Mary Clarke who told us about the early history of the WI's own Denman College from 1948 to the present day. There are a wide range of courses on offer and her excellent slides showed the beautiful house with its Georgian interior, the comfortable bedrooms and the teaching blocks, all surrounded by seventeen and a half acres of grounds. Many members present had attended courses at Denman and for the newer members Mary's talk and slides gave them a taster of what the college offers.

Our eco-team leader reported on a conference she had attended recently in London and also urged us to use our bus passes, after April, thus cutting down on the cost of petrol and our carbon emissions.

Our annual Boot Sale, always a popular event, will be held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday, 10th May. If you have an accumulation of unwanted items to dispose of give Heather a ring on 522491 to reserve a table. These are going quickly so don't delay!

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Chairman: Mr John Allen

Parish Clerk: Mrs B. Darby. Tel: Otford 524808

Young people are often mentioned because of problems they cause. But this is a minority and it is now possible to recognise all those who have been notable in some outstanding and positive way through the "Try Angle Awards".

These were started in 1994 to recognise those who deserve recognition by the local community for their achievement, or their effort to improve in some way.

There are eight categories:

1 BRAVERY

A Try Angle Award that recognises acts of Bravery by young people or the outstanding efforts of those who cope bravely with illness or other adversity.

2 PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT IN THE ARTS

For those who have done their best to improve on their own Personal Achievements in the Arts (dance, video and crafts, etc.).

3 PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT IN MUSIC

For those who have done their best to improve on their own Personal Achievement in Music in any form.

4 PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT IN SPORT OR OUTDOOR ACTIVITY

For those who have done their best to improve on their own Personal Achievements in Sport or Outdoor Activity demonstrating Sportsmanship, Fair Play and Commitment.

5 GOOD FRIENDS AND YOUNG CARERS

For those who spend time being a Good Friend or Carer to another in their family or in the local community.

6 VOLUNTEERING AND SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY

Recognising the efforts and achievement of young people (either individuals or groups) who have been of Service to others in the community.

7 CITIZENSHIP & ENVIRONMENT

A Try Angle Award to recognise the achievement of young people (either as individuals or groups) involved in initiatives, such as Youth Action Groups, School or Youth Councils, or environmental work in the area.

8 PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARD

A Try Angle Award recognising special achievement in Education and after-school activities not covered in other categories.

If you know of someone between 11 and 18 who deserves recognition in one of these ways, you may obtain a form from the Parish Office and send details to the Tunbridge Wells and Sevenoaks Area Office. There will be selections and presentations for this area and also a County Celebration Event for those considered the very best in Kent. The closing date for receiving the forms is the 16th May.

IN MEMORY

We offer our condolences to the family of Rosa Matilda Wylie who died on 18th February. A service, conducted by the Revd. David Casiot, was held in Church on 29th February, followed by burial in Otford Cemetery. Rosa was born in South London in September 1927, the third of seven children. She trained as a nursery nurse with Dr. Barnardo's and worked for many years at the flagship Barnardo's home in Essex. She gave up her career as a nursery nurse when she married in 1957, aged 29, but after the marriage broke down, she went to work as a clerical assistant at the Inland Revenue in West Norwood, where she met her second husband, Tom. They married in 1979. She contracted rheumatoid arthritis in 1969 when her daughter Angela was 8. She bore this affliction with great fortitude and never missed a school play, concert or sports day. She was able to enjoy Angela's marriage in 2006.

She will be remembered for her ever-present smile and complete unconcern for herself, despite her considerable disabilities. Despite many operations, the advance of her arthritis was relentless and incapacitating. Tom became her full-time carer, doing a most remarkable job. Rosa had a very hard life, not least in relation to her health, but she bore every suffering with great fortitude. She brightened the lives of her family and friends immeasurably and will be deeply and sorely missed.

We offer our condolences to the family of Reginald Edmund Symmons, who died on 24th February. A service, conducted by the Revd. David Casiot, was held in Church on 6th March followed by burial in the churchyard. Reginald was a quiet man, born of humble parents in what is now Hampstead in North West London on 12th July 1923. He lived, prior to coming to Otford in 1988, in Bushey Heath and Canada where the family emigrated in 1959 before returning home in 1962. Otford more latterly became the centre of life, with his childhood sweetheart and latter his wife, Vera, who sadly passed away only twelve months or so after coming to the village. They were married in 1940 and their only daughter, Carol, was born in 1942.

Reg enlisted in the Navy and served in the Far East. His return marked the start of his post war years as a ventilation engineer in West London, where he became a partner in a small business in Cricklewood in 1963. Carol presented him with two grandchildren, Sarah and Karen, who both later married and provided him with three great grandchildren, Liam, Holly and Mason. Nothing was too much for all his family, for a man who, having lost his wife so early after his arrival in Otford, was able to live quite contentedly until a cruel roadside fall started his decline in health in early January 2007.

Reg had retired in 1988, effectively on his arrival in Otford and turned to gardening and membership of the National Lifeboat Association, the National Trust and the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds. He was a kindly, mild-mannered person, often described as a gentleman, especially by those caring for him at Abbeyfield, The Dynes in Kemsing over the last few months, which he came to regard as home. He will be sorely missed by his family and friends and will be remembered for his genuineness and humility.

We offer our condolences to the family of Sally Elizabeth Wöstmann who died on 27th February in the Princess Royal Hospital, Farnborough. An obituary will be published in the May magazine.
